Aisha Group (U) Limited

Aisha Group Limited is one of the leading foreign owned companies in Uganda with chains of fast foods restaurants, Ware Houses (Car Bond) with specialty in export of japans used cars. It started operation in Uganda in 2005 and the company has grown through the years and established a bond with Uganda Revenue Authority Bond Number W0222 situated on Naguru Road. The aim of Aisha Group is to provide Ugandans with quality, affordable and reliable yet cheap vehicles as well as reducing the cost of transportation which is one of the major challenges facing social-economical transformation of Uganda.

Aisha Group (U) Limited handles over 500 vehicles car units annually which makes over 1,000,000 US dollar contribution to Uganda revenue collection and we look forward

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer to expand this capacity. With our quality services, most Ugandans can now afford to own good conditioned used cars compared to the brand new and expensive ones which are generally purchased by government, embassies, international organizations and wealth Ugandans.

The company employs Ugandans in different departments who provide management and technical support to the day to days operations of the fastest growing motor vehicle company in Uganda. Its staff regards it as the firm that highly values the rights, dignity and integrity of all the employees.

The group focuses on expanding its services and products to Ugandans. The group believe that the community and its people make its investment a success that is why it came out and helped its brothers and sisters in north and western Uganda through provision of items like foods, blankets, medication, etc and continues to be optimistic that together we can make life better in Uganda.
